

Owen Neal Piffner Jr.

April 8, 1959 - September 10, 2025

Owen Neal Piffner Jr., 66, of Cobb Island, Maryland, passed away on Wednesday, September 10, 2025 at the University of Maryland Charles Regional Medical Center in La Plata.

Born on April 8, 1959 in Alexandria, Virginia, he was the son of the late Owen Neal Piffner Sr. and Betty Louise Piffner. Owen was the proprietor of Owen's Auto Body, founded in 1978, Owen carried his company for nearly 50 years. He was an aviator and pilot who enjoyed flying in his private planes for recreation. He enjoyed camping, traveling, and being outdoors.

In addition to his parents, Owen was preceded in death by his sister Marrienne Stahl.

Owen is survived by his wife Angela Heidi Perriello; daughters Annette Tiffany Piffner and Olivia Jane Piffner; brother William Piffner.

Service and interment will be private.

Tribute Wall

BC

“ It is hard to believe our friend Owen is gone . It was always so good to talk to him when he was doing repairs for us. Always took care of my car but kept me up on what was going on in the community. He is missed and thought of often with good thoughts . God bless his family! Bobbi Caron bobbi caron - September 22, 2025 at 11:28 AM

HC

“ I am still in disbelief! Prayers for the family. I had the pleasure of knowing Owen for 11 years. He wasn't only my mechanic he was my friend. I'm going to miss you friend. A true honest man. You will truly be missed by many. Rest easy my friend. Ms. Casmore

H. Casmore - September 22, 2025 at 10:52 AM

DE

“ Donna M Echols lit a candle in memory of Owen Neal Piffner Jr.

Donna M Echols - September 15, 2025 at 06:48 PM