“ My Aunt Pam was a truly great women in my life. I always enjoyed staying at her and my uncle Jimmy's house with my cousins Phillip and Andrea. She always had the greatest leftovers, and always pointed me to the direction of the fridge. Anyone who knows my Aunt Pam, knows that she can cook! She was also known for the variety of candy she had in her purse. She always treated me very well and I will miss her. I wish I could have seen her more these past years. I'm glad I was at least able to give her a hug the last time I saw her. Aunt Pam, I love you and will miss you. I'll never forget you. Love Andrew a.k.a AJ

“ Dear mom, you are so missed. I feel as if my world shattered when you left. As I attempt to pick up the pieces to move forward, just know the waves of emotion crashing over me pull me under with sorrow but your memory brings me back to a new type of peace. Finding smiles since you left is a challenge. You made every holiday, birthday and ordinary days wonder and bright. You are the strongest person I know no one will ever compare to you. Mom only you will understand this "you were my firefly!" I will see you again one day in heaven. Just know the lives you touched and helped were so many. I am so blessed to have had you as my mom. I love and miss you so much. Life will never be the same without you 💔

“ I'm going to miss you my friend. Your smile and laugh will remain in my memories along with the fun times we had singing on the Praise Team together, bible studies with the ladies at church and great conversations about almost anything. Looking out my breakfast knook window and knowing you were just across the pastures, seeing your porch light glowing was a joy because I knew my friend and neighbor was right there. I love you and will miss you, see you again my friend.

“ When I think of Pam, I remember how she brought joy into a room when she entered. She was a really great cook, and when Jim carried in the Easter ham or something else she prepared for the church, people felt the love she put into it. I will miss her. She truly was an example of how we are to love our neighbor. Randy Thomas
One of my favorite memories of Pam is when she and Jim ran the youth group at church. The kids knew that she and Jim loved them. One time they sponsored an overnight campout at the church for the youth, and Pam looked so happy and satisfied. I can see her standing in the kitchen preparing food and joking around with the kids. They liked to hang out with her. Pam had a quiet spirit that drew people in. We have a big hole in our hearts, but we know we will see you again, Pam.
Love, Terri Thomas
