“ As unfortunate as this is I just heard of her passing just today, as we had lost touch for a couple of years before. She came to my home for a Mother's Day encouragement that I had, and it was like old times catching up. She was so happy and joyful and always felt blessed by God. Her children were her passion and her love was fueled by their love and devotion for her. She was always thankful and I will never forget the times we shared and the talks we had. I miss her very much and wish I had connected again with her before she passed. My heart is breaking right now. But I know she was well loved and she is now with our Lord. ❤️

“ I am so sorry to hear of Patrice's passing. I met Patrice when my children attended daycare in her neighborhood. I enjoyed our chats at the bus stop. My heart goes out to her family, especially to Brent and Sian. Your Mom loved you dearly and always spoke about how proud she was of both of you.

“ I first met this wonderful loving mother when Sian attended Lakeside preschool. Her presence commanded respect and it showed her confidence in herself. We had a good time together last summer when the troop went horse back riding. She delighted in that moment and was looking forward to doing so much more with her kids and family. To her kids cherish the love that your mom had for you always.
