“ Pitty Pat was a second mom to everyone she met. I know she was to me!! We shared wonderful times together at Breezy Point, in her backyard and a very long trip to Disney. You will be missed but always loved. Prayers for you and your family.

“ I met Pat 37 years ago (wow). She was an amazing woman and very caring. We have shared so many memories that I will cherish always. Pat and Paul were truly two love birds. I know Paul has such a heavy heart and know that the good Lord will comfort him. Pat I truly love you and wish you much peace. Love Karen Dent. p.s. I love this picture and I'm guessing it was taken at one of the many crab feast we use to have in your side yard with the Hydes. Give them my love.

“ Pat and Paul we met at Breezy Point on the bay around 1977 and they quickly became one of our favorite people. Our kids also really loved Pat and Paul. We did a lot of fishing and eating crabs together. We loved doing things with them, even one year a Disney trip. Pat will be missed by all. Our prayers are with the family and especially Paul.
Love Cora and Neal and family.
