“ I was in the Navy and stationed in Suitland from late '73 to '76. I got to know Gary and Pat and her friend Cindy. The four of us and other friends went to Ocean City and the Shenandoah mountains to hike and camp whenever we could. Many wonderful and precious memories from those times. There will always be a place in my heart and soul for Peppermint Patty. Fair winds and following seas for you until our souls meet again dear Patty. 🙏❤️

“ Pat and I had been friends since Middle School. She and Rob lived one street over from me, and we spent the summers together. We attended High School together. Later we worked as civilian employees for Department of Navy in Suitland, Maryland. We had lunch together and also would walk to the Census Bureau complex to have lunch with her mom. My most favorite memory of Pat was us dancing, non-stop every Friday at Teen Club. Very special. She was a wonderful Friend. Our birthdays are exactly 1 month apart in the same year. God Bless you good friend. Hope to see you again ❤️
