“ I've known Patsy since kindergarten. We went thru high school together and hung out as kids and teens. She married Joe, I went to college and life went on. I found an old photo of us recently, both in our First Communion dresses standing outside the St. Mary's Star of the Sea school. She had those long "Shirley Temple" curls that her mom would do using "rag curlers". I was always envious of the curls.

I emailed Patsy recently to get together after so long. But she was in the middle of a move. Its a missed opportunity now that I will always remember.

I will always cherish my memories of our times together.
