“ We are really saddened by Pat's passing and our condolences to Chrissy, Tracey and all of the family. As we were related through the marriage of Pat's mother Jean to my brother Jack, we really grew closer with Pat as Jean became ill and then even more as my brother aged and eventually passed. My brother always considered Pat his lovely daughter and spoke of how proud he was of her and her daughters, Chrissy and Tracey. He greatly anticipated Pat's calls each Sunday prior to the football games and the NASCAR races. Pat helped us through some difficult times with our conversations as my brother's health deteriorated. I know she has been reunited for eternity with Bill, Bob, Mary Lou, Ruth, Jack and her Mom. Please Pat, let them know that they are missed here, as you are, but one day, "may" we all be united. Love, Dee (Al) & Lynda Klein

“ Hi Mom, I wrote my first message I think as a comment under Chrissy's original post, but I'm laying here thinking about you and I love you and miss you. I'm still in disbelief. This is just awful. I want you here!

“ My deepest condolences to Chrissy, Tracey, and Pat’s entire family. I have many fond memories of Pat and the girls; from breakfast chats (when Tracey spilled the beans about dog biscuits and orange juice) to carpool adventures. To this day, while driving, I use “Pat-isms.” Pat deeply loved her daughters and extended that love to their friends. Pat’s simple acts of kindness, one in particular for me, had the most meaningful and profound impact. I am and will be forever grateful for that one day so long ago when she drove me and Chrissy into DC. Pat never would accept any credit, but without her forethought and motherly encouragement when I was only 17, I’d not have the life I enjoy at 51. I know Pat is watching over her family and friends with love and pride. Praying for God’s peace and comfort to Chrissy and Tracey during this difficult time.

“ Dear Chrissy & Tracey: What a beautifully written tribute to your Mom in this obituary and your personal messages! You both were the light of her life and she raised two extraordinary daughters -- Be proud of what she taught you and how you always gave her never-ending love and support. For me, I am so thankful for the 56 year bond of friendship that she and I shared, ups and downs, laughter and tears, but always steadfast. She will be missed by everyone who knew her and we all have amazing memories to share and bring us comfort in the days ahead. I love you both, and I loved your Mom. Love, Marty & Dougie

“ Hi Mom - you are an angel in Heaven now. In the home God created for you so many years ago. And though I know your eternal life is so much better - I miss you terribly.

There are no words that can express fully just how blessed I am that you were my mom. To say thank you for all you've done for me just isn't enough. You are the best mom ever! I'm so very blessed that we were not only mother and daughter, but friends too. You touched so many lives with your friendship, love, smile, and laughter, and your memory will live on in each of us. You were my idol, my rock, and the person who gave me strength. Rest in Peace my beautiful Momma. I will see you again one day. Love forever and ever, your daughter, Chrissy.

1-18-2022. Hi my beautiful mom. You are an angel in the skies now. I hope you hear me talking to you, I miss you so much and love you more than you ever knew! You were my best friend, I could count on you for anything. I am so sorry, it wasn't suppose to be this way, you were suppose to be here for years to come. You had an amazing inner strength and I always admired that about you. I couldn't ask for a better mom, and when god created you, he made you beautiful, strong, smart, loving, loyal, and perfect (to me) and guided you to be the best mom. I hope I can be half of what you are to me to my own kids. I will talk to you everyday, looking for that motherly advice that you were always so good at and willing to give. Please continue to guide me. I miss you, life definitely will not/is not the same without you here on earth. I wish I could pick up that phone and call you to hear your beautiful voice and walk downstairs and see how your doing and just sit and talk with you. I am still in disbelief. May you Rest In Peace! Looking forward to the day I can see you again, until then I'll see you in my dreams! I love you forever and ever!
Love, Your daughter Tracey
