“ I am grateful that I knew Pat Lyon. He was the sweetest compassionate man that took a lot of pride in everything he did. I just loved to hear his voice. He touched our lives in such a beautiful gentle way. He was a special family member. May he spend eternity with Jesus in heaven. Hope to see you up there one day Pat. Praying for his family and friends that loss this beautiful soul.

“ Pat was a character. The things he would say and how he'd say them could keep us laughing. He also was a caring man. He'd help anyone in need. He loved decorating for the holidays. His yard & his cars were always spotless. Loved his smiles & his laugh was contagious. He never forgot a birthday and always called. Pat was not just a brother in-law at one time, we were friends. And I know he loved me & I loved him. RIP dear friend. You'll never be forgotten. Tell Pops hi from us. To his family, Jon & I are deeply sorry for your loss. May you have peace knowing he is in a wonderful place with no worries or sickness. God bless each of you.

With Love,
Debbie & Jon
