“ Paul will always be one of my best friends, he was one of my best friends when I got married. He sure loved his family and would do anything for them. I spent so many years hanging out with Paul starting when I was 16 till now at the age of 39. Paul sure was family to a bunch of people and sure is missed. I drive by Paul's house a couple times a week hoping him passing isn't real.

“ Rest In Peace brother! You will be missed by so many!!! So many memories of good times and a couple bad times. May your wings be strong and graceful and you fly high and mighty! Watch over and protect your family, friends and loved ones from above. My condolences, thoughts and prayers to the entire family. I wish I could be there for the service but unfortunately I can not as I am in Florida. Love and Godspeed!

“ I could never forget this starving little boy. When Paul was about 3 years old he was sitting at the counter eating peas and drinking water, we thought his mom was starving him, but that is all he would eat at that time. He dropped a pea off his fork and it fell onto the floor and our little dog picked it up but before she could eat it Paul jumped off the stool and snatched the pea off the dogs tongue and ate it. He let us know it was his.

I have many memories of this guy, especially when he was little. Paul was a wirey little daredevil and was not afraid to try anything. One of the funniest times is when he tried to pee on his brother when they were playing in the backyard. Paul pulled the front part of his elastic shorts and aimed at Joe but his shorts pulled up and Paul peed in his own face. We all laughed as he used his arm to wipe his face and continue to go off to play.

Paul you may be gone but you will never be forgotten. I pray God will hold your family tight as they grieve your passing. You was loved beyond words.

“ Rest In Peace Paul. You left us way too early. You still had work to do and family and friends that needed you. I remember when you was about 3. We called to Skinny Benny because you were so small and Jim was Fat Matt. You would cry because you wanted to be fat Matt!
