“ Hi Dad,

I'm having a moment here. I really miss you. Today is Victoria's Angel day-I hope you have met her spirit and that she is all Dutra:) Your smile, sense of humor and work ethic are all missed. I still keep thinking you are going to drive down my driveway and walk in and say "hi." I think mom misses having you there to take care of her and it breaks my heart to see her doing so much on her own. The way you always took care of what needed to take care of and just did it-you didn't need credit for it, or needed to mention it. You just did it!!!

Kyle is playing baseball and I really wish you could be there to see him hit that ball! Amber is still an honor roll student and is playing high school softball...you always said she was a good player. It's just so weird not having you here with us and some days I just can't stand it. I am being strong for mom but it's so hard. I think we all feel so guilty doing things without you but we really have no choice. God had another plan for you-at least your frustration is gone. That really bothered us all to see you not be able to communicate the way you wanted. Gonna go tuck Kyle in bed now-keep watching over us.

*Love,
Colleen*

“ Hi Dad

*I still miss you. We had a pretty big snow storm-18 inches and you were not here-that made me sad. Especially since when I was visiting mom the other day and Amber found your piece of paper that you used to write down the dates of all of the snow storms for the last 15-20 years. Wish you could have added this one yourself. Mom is doing okay-you would be proud of her. She is getting along, filling out paperwork, writing bills, calling people to fix the dryer- Chris found your info on him. You were so organized. Nancy has been getting mom out so she can get some fresh air and a lil exercise. I do know you are watching over us daily...keep an eye on us always please. We all miss you! Love,
Colleen*

“ PopPop,

You were the greatest poppop any grandchild could ask for. You would always play with us, take us on walks, tell us stories, and many other things. You would always get mad when we would "steal" your blue rocking chair and sit in it, but it was uncomftorable anyways for us because it was molded to your butt shape. Everyone has you in their thoughts. Brandon and i remember you showing us around the police car. We all know your in a better and pain-free place and watching over us. Were glad to have known a man like you, especially be related to you and have you as our PopPop! We all wish we could have had more time and memories with you, but the ones we do have we will all cherish and remember forever. Your grandkids will take good care of grandma for you. We all love you and miss you, and will never ever forget you. We love you PopPop!

*with much love from your grandchildren,
Amber, Brandon, and Kyle*

“ Paul,

We've known you not to long but it seems that we missed a member of our family when you left. We missed the smile when you're happy and grumpy face when you're frustrated. But now we know that you are now in peace and no more pain.

“ To Paul's family, Sharon, Colleen, Kelly and Chris.

I am sorry for your loss. I remember when Colleen and Kelly were in my Girl Scout troop. That was many, many years ago. A lot of water has run under the bridge since then. Those were the days.

RIP Paul.

“ Paul, you will never be forgotten. You were a great neighbor and friend to our entire family. We remember the great times with our kids playing in the backyards, and you generously taking all the kids to the circus, and movies. We have many great memories of Bryans Road, Md. but our special memories are of you, Sharon and the kids.

“ Uncle Paul -

Aqua-Velva Ice Blue Aftershave, tattered bathrobes, getting mad at little things - but forgiving the big ones with a laugh. You and my dad (your brother Jack) sitting next to each other, looking almost like twins, with your physical mannerisms. Your chortling laughter as you shook your head in disbelief at the ridiculous things, and crazy jokes, that came out of my mouth. But my favorite memory of you has to be when the OH Dutra's and MD Dutra's went camping together at Mammoth Caves in KY, sometime in the last 1970s..... We were a mile underground doing the "day-tour" through the caves and you recommended I have the Chili that was being served in the "Snowball Dining Room"... We both enjoyed it to keep warm in the coolness of the caves. We still had about 3 hours left of the cave tour, but for some reason the Chili ran right through me (not YOU!!!) Upon driving back to our families campsite, i stunk up your car with the awful smell that was embedded in my jeans - Festering in the hot July day, in the back of your car! After coming back from showering at the camps facilities, you had a bucket of soapy water waiting for me, and said "clean out that car!!!! Its smells awful!" Of course you were laughing when you said it, with the same look on your face as you do in the picture on this memorial site. Believe it or not.... this is a very fond memory I have of you! It's the crazy stuff like this that we remember, the stuff that makes us human, that endears us to one another. Thanks for being such an amazing Man. I'll keep you alive in my heart, and in the things I do.

I miss you.

*Love,
Your Nephew, Michael Dutra*

“ I'm so sad to learn that Uncle Paul is gone. When we lose the ones we love is when we truly realize the heavy price the miracle of life bears. He will be missed and remembered. Auntie Sharon, Colleen, Kelly, Chris and all the grand-kids, I am so sorry for your loss. With a heavy heart and lots of love,
Dan

“ Even though it's hard to say goodbye it helps to know that you are watching over us. We will continue to see you everyday in your children, Colleen, Kelly, & Chris, as well as your beautiful wife Sharon. I will try my best to make Chris as happy, as he makes me everyday. You will for ever be in my heart, as well as everybody who knew you.
Love,
Tricia

“ You were the best neighbor that we will ever have. You never seemed to mind all of the kids raiding your back yard and climbing into the tree house that you build for them. After the kids had grown and gone you said you were going to take it down. I told you that you would be removing a great memory of mine as I could see it from my kitchen window. You left it up a bit longer. You and Jerry shared some great stories over the fence and also were co-workers when you cleaned out the back drain. All of you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I am sorry and sadden that I didn't get the time to know such a amazing man as Paul Dutra, the gleam In the eyes of his family members when they speak about the him, only proves the love and caring he gave and shared amongst people who knew and loved him. I would have enjoyed to hear the story's and adventures he went through, as a soldier, a police officer, a brother, a father and a husband. But time and distance prevailed it. Now he will have new adventures, where there is no pain or sickness, no wars, no violence. A place reserved only for those who are good hearted, spiritual and amazing. He will be truly missed.....
