“ It was sad hearing the news at church of our dear brother Paul's passing. I missed seeing his cheery face at Calvary Gospel Church in Waldorf, Maryland for many months due to the pandemic, but Paul was always in my thoughts and prayers. Living 95 years is such a blessing, and Paul was so deserving of that blessing! I always looked forward to seeing Paul's smiling face at church, and I would hurry to greet him, hug him, and have a chat after service. I really liked hearing his stories of life during earlier days, and how he came to know the Lord. Paul was my friend and a friend of God. He loved Jesus and delighted in talking about His Savior and Lord. I have a special place in my heart for my dear spiritual brother, Paul, and I'll truly miss him. I delight in knowing heaven is now his eternal home and he can walk along with Jesus, the One who has always held his hand.
