“ I have so many good memories of my uncle Paul. Playing in his waterbed and he told us we weren't allowed in his room when we were kids. He would come home and we would hear him and hide in his closet. He knew we were in there. He would come in his room and pretend he had no clue. I remember going out to breakfast with him and Grandpa every Saturday morning when I was little and visiting. We would sneak out. He was always making us laugh. I loved when he would message or call me And tell me how much I'm like my mom and how storm chasing ran an our blood. I'm really going to miss that. He was my go-to when I had questions about the family history. If I would post something he would always chime in with some kind of advice or he would make a funny about it. Oh my messages or phone calls that started with hello dear. I love you Uncle Paul. Say hi to Mom, Chris, Aunty Nay Nay and Summer for me. Make sure you let Summer know I'm not going to head off when I see her but I'm also going to love her up. Watch over the rest of our family. Thank you for sending me that terrible cast iron iron hahaha! That holds a thousand memories too. I sure am going to miss you. Your first and favorite niece lol~ShanShan

Paul and I met when we were 14yrs old. We used to go skating together every weekend. We could go weeks without talking as we got older but it was like we never skipped a beat. I could call him anytime and he would be there for me. Paul I will miss your silly humor, kindness and Hugh heart. Until we met again my dear friend. Love Sandi
