“ Pete I can't believe you are gone. What a pleasure it has been knowing you and your family for the last 25 years. I always enjoyed cutting your hair and having some great conversations with you about life. You will be missed my friend. Prayers to your wonderful family during this difficult and sad time.

“ Whatever work Peter undertook in his work career, he did it well and with zeal. He was never afraid to ask questions to thoroughly understand what he was doing. Before departing our office, he would always come up with, "Not to sound like Columbo, but one more thing." His smile was infectious. When he came to our office, he parked his car like it was in a car dealer show room- parking it parallel to the curb as opposed to perpendicular as called for by our cul-de sac. He one time said his car's cousin was outside. I asked him what did he mean, and he said it was the twin of his car made by another division of his car's manufacturer. Peter, you are missed and loved. I am glad I got to know you. I am enriched for it. John Keller

“ We were all saddened by the news of Peter's death and have felt a terrible void ever since at our office. Peter was a shining light almost every morning when he came through the door, eager to report his successes at serving process to individuals all around the metropolitan area. He took his assignments and work very seriously and with a zest that will never be replaced. Nor should it, for Peter's style was uniquely his own. Never complained about an assignment - that was just not his style at all! We could all learn a lesson from that. More importantly, Peter was our friend. We have all been blessed by his friendship. Thank you, Nikolai Family, for sharing Peter with us.
