

Philip Laverne Thompson

July 13, 1934 - November 13, 2021

Philip Laverne Thompson, 87, of Newburg, Maryland, passed away on Saturday, November 13, 2021 at Restore Health Rehabilitation Center in White Plains.

Born on July 13, 1934 in St. Mary's County, he was the son of the late Philip Hayden Thompson and Alice Arlene Thompson. Phil worked as a mechanic all his life, from automobiles to heavy equipment. He is best remembered for his time at the Glasva Shell and General Paving in Manassas VA. He enjoyed photographing family, friends, but mostly nature, going hunting, working in the yard, gardening, socializing with anyone he could tell a story or joke to.

In addition to his parents, Phil was preceded in death by his wife Betty Lou; son Robert Allen Thompson; brothers William Edgar Thompson, James Farley Thompson, and Joseph Richard Thompson.

Phil is survived by his sons Philip Laverne Thompson Jr. (Christine), William David Thompson (Janet), and Richard Brian Thompson; sisters Mary Helen Murphy and Carolyn Ann Trossbach; six grandchildren; six great grandchildren; two special great grandchildren, Jayden Dionson and Payton Grogg, who were with Phil and his late wife Betty since they were born; and a large step-family, including children and grandchildren.

A visitation will be held from 10AM until time of service at 12Noon on Friday, November 19, 2021 at the Raymond Funeral Service, P.A., 5635 Washington Avenue, La Plata, Maryland 20646.

Interment to follow at Trinity Memorial Gardens, 3221 Mattawoman-Beantown Road, Waldorf, Maryland 20601. Pallbearers are Zachary Thompson, John Thompson, James Murphy, Darren Alvey, Brian Gillingham, and Roger Gray.

Condolences may be made on Phil's Tribute Wall.

“ I remember Phil's sense of humor and his kindness. He will be missed. I look forward to seeing him "in Glory," someday and we will find something to laugh about or a good joke.

I am praying for comfort and peace for his family.

Love to all his family,

Janie (Hardesty) Nicoll.
