

Phyllis Sarah Hayden

November 12, 1942 - December 3, 2023

Phyllis Sarah Hayden, 81, of La Plata, passed away on December 3, 2023. She was born November 12, 1942 in Washington, DC., the daughter of Elmer and Dorothy Stone.

Phyllis married John Hayden and enjoyed the next 60 years of marriage, raising 5 beautiful children, Virginia Cusick (Mike), Veronica Phelps (Tim), Paul Hayden, Michelle Raybon (Brian), and Mary Sullivan. She was blessed with 17 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren (with one more on the way). Her love and kindness for children has always been a priority in life. She touched many children's lives with in-home daycare for many years and then teaching 20 years with the Head Start Program in Charles County. She actively participated and volunteered at Sacred Heart Church and in her community. She made and sewed hundreds of pillows for her local hospital for patients post-operatively and was a member of the Sodality at her church as well. She always had her arms open for a hug and showed "kindness" to everyone!

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Alzheimer's alz.org (in memory of her sister, Betty Patterson)

Interment will be private for immediate family.

“ Phyllis loved every child. Her creativity in developing fun, learning activities were effective in teaching children important skills and preparing them for success in school. She was one of the best Head Start teachers I ever had the pleasure of knowing. Heaven just gained an angel with a heart of pure gold. To the Hayden family thank you for sharing her with us. God bless you. Norma Pipkin.
