“ I didn't know your Dad for that long. But the time I did spend talking to him he always had a smile on his face and that I will always remember, It was also nice getting to know the family who loved him with all their hearts and souls. Sincerely Julie Taylor

“ I continue to think about Ted and my Dad a couple of years back when they were both up to there mischief. That is the way I prefer to recall them both.

Happy kindred spirits.

Sharing your sorrow. Vincent (Vinny) and Julie.

“ One day last spring my son Willy Hess Senior) went to visit his grandfather at Fenwick Landing where he lived. As he walked in his building he asked, where's Mr Ted?

Oh he's outback trying to escape again. He walked out to find his grandfather trying to climb the fence. So naturally he asked GP what the hell are you doing?

Oh I dropped some money and just trying to get it. My dad was always quick with his answers .

I was so blessed to of had him in my life. We sure made some great memories. Sunday was dads favorite day of the week before he took ill. Going to the market in White Plains then off to his favorite place to eat Texas Ribs in Laplata where he was always greeted with open arms from everyone who worked there. I miss him so much but he's in a better place.

RIP daddy

“ Prayers to the family of Ted Willing. I had the privilege to have played golf with him. It has been said, "That where ever a good soul has walked, there is a trail of beautiful memories". Ted is that good soul & there are many, many good memories of him.

“ Besides being so lucky to have the honor of being named after him one of the latest amazingly funny stories of my dad was at the age of 88 climbing over a 6 foot fence. He did this not by using a chair or ladder to assist, he did it by pulling himself over the fence with just his upper body. Why? Why would he do this??! He just wanted to get to the other side and that was the quickest, slickest way to do it without being seen. I do love and miss my amazing dad!!
