“ Ed was my first best friend, as sometimes cousins can be. The best dance partner of Suitland Jr High School and up thru our Tap Inn days and beyond.....a real character that everyone liked. Those who were fortunate enough to be his family or become his friend knew him to be kind, loyal and loving. The only thing that could be worse than him closing his eyes in death having to leave our hearts breaking would be if we were never to have had him in our lives at all..... Jesus promises we will see Ed again in the Resurrection, John chapter 5 verses 28 & 29. Love and prayers to all his loved ones.
