

Raymond George Bashoor

October 9, 1928 - May 16, 2015

Raymond G. Bashoor, of Accokeek, MD, passed away on Saturday, May 16, 2015.

He was born in Washington, DC on October 9, 1928 to the late John Eassy Bashoor and the late Alice Habib Bashoor. He is survived by his wife of 61 years, Lydia; his daughter, Linda LoMonaco and husband Mike; his grandson, Joey LoMonaco; and siblings, Janet Bashoor Davis and husband Arnold and James Bashoor as well as numerous nieces and nephews, two sister-in-laws, and many friends. One sister and three brothers preceded him in death.

Ray graduated from Eastern High School and served in combat as an Army Medic during the Korean War. After returning home to DC, he worked for DC Metro Transit and Thompson's Dairy and then began a 37-year career as a very successful car salesman. He was also a long-time member of the Oxon Hill Lion's Club and the Northern Virginia Gun Club.

Friends may gather on Saturday, May 23, 2015 from 10AM until Memorial Service time at 11AM at Faith United Methodist Church, 15769 Livingston Road, Accokeek, MD 20607. Interment at Quantico National Cemetery on Friday, May 29, 2015 at 10AM with Army Honors.
