It is with profound sadness that the family of Raymond T. DiGiovanni announce his passing on February 10, 2021 at the age of 90. He is survived by his devoted and loving wife, Judith DiGiovanni of 42 years.

Raymond was born in Washington, DC on May 14, 1930 to Gabriel and Genevieve DiGiovanni. He is preceded in death by his brother, Francis DiGiovanni, sister Gloria Huggins, and survived by this sister Phyllis Kehres (James) and brother Gabriel DiGiovanni (Mary Ann).

He had 10 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. Raymond also had many nieces and nephews who were very dear to his heart, especially his goddaughter, Kristen Kehres Oaks.

Raymond enjoyed spending time with family and friends, and dancing with the love of his life, Judy. He had a love for sports, especially his Washington Football Team, and never turned down a meal, especially a Sunday spaghetti dinner.

“ I will always remember his hearty laugh and the times we would sit & watch our favorite show America’s Got Talent when I would come to visit. Both Uncle Raymond & Aunt Judy would always make it possible for us to get our Crabs 🦀. And I loved the July 4th family get together in Bel Alton & how he would allow Giana & Alia to drive his truck in the big field next to the barn! And I still remember the look on his face at his 70th Birthday Surprise Party! What FUN....What a Celebration!!

My Heart is broken for the loss of My Uncle Raymond. He was the Patriarch of the Family that we all Loved, Looked up to & Respected

💔 He will be truly Missed💕

Love, Love, Love YOU Uncle Ray & so blessed & happy that I got to talk to you about a month ago.....Forever in my Heart.....Victoria
