“ So sorry to hear of their passing. I just stumbled upon the obituary while surfing the web. I knew the Luskeys well. My sister and I grew up on our family's farm, on the shore of the Patuxent River, here in Solomons, MD. THE Luskeys had a mobile home almost right next to our house and lived there for years. My sister and I were fairly constant visitors. They always made us feel welcome. I will say that Ray had just a bit of the Devil in him, he was always ready for a practical joke. I remember one time, when the tide was low, he walked up the beach in front of our house with a broom and some fire crackers. He pulled the broom up on his shoulder like a rifle and threw a fire cracker. My mother saw this and was convinced he was shooting at the house. I told her, "Mom, Mr Luskey would never shoot at us!" Big joke!

Eventually they moved from the farm to a house across the river in St. Mary's county. I would stop in occasionally when out in my boat to say hi. Wonderful people. I'm very glad I knew them. My condolences to the family.

Sincerely,
Bill Glascock, Solomons, Md
