“ Ray was a real true friend. He and I roomed together while living in and around Washington. I was best man at his wedding and he was at mine. Our families socialized through the years and shared many happy memories. The last time we saw him was June 9th while he was at George Washington Hospital. We talked about the old days and shared some of the humorous events the occurred over the years. He was in good sprits and knew his destiny. RIP, Ray Our condolences to Joan, his children and their families.

“ Mr. Ray was a family friend of mine! He let my father and I spend a summer in his home while my family was in the process of moving. He is an amazing man with the most brilliant sense of humor I have ever come across! He was also a man after God's own heart. He will definitely be missed!

“ Ray was a good friend of all of us at the FBI. My fondest memories of him was when he used to go out on the charter boat fishing with some of us friends. I also enjoyed going to Rose Croft to watch the trotters. Rest in peace my Friend.
