April 1, 1963 - September 12, 2013

Raymond Earl Wiseman Jr., age 50 of La Plata, MD, passed away September 12, 2013 in Reston, VA.

Ray was born and raised in Taylorville, IL. He proudly played on the Taylorville Tornado's football team and graduated with the Class of 1981. The construction business brought Ray to MD where he married Charlene Lancaster in 1989. They were blessed with the birth of their daughter Ana in November. Ray entered the telecommunications field working for AT&T and Verizon. With partners he later formed his own business – Global Internetworking. After selling the business he remained in the field, working independently. He loved animals and the outdoors, spending much of the warm months down on the farm on the Port Tobacco River. He enjoyed refinishing furniture and antique tools. An aspiring inventor, he often found new purposes for old finds, especially after he started metal detecting with his newest toy.

He is the son of Raymond Earl Wiseman Sr. and Theresa Myerscough Wiseman. He is also survived by his wife of 24 years, Charlene Lancaster Wiseman; his daughter, Ana Nicole Wiseman; and two sisters, Debbie Wiseman Lewis and Janice Marvel and husband Steve. He is predeceased by his daughter, Corinne Marie Wiseman.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, September 28, 2013 in Taylorville, IL.

“ We were saddened to learn of Ray's recent passing. We have fond memories of chatting with Ray down on the farm. We know how much Ray loved being down there. We just saw the obituary in the paper and we have already relocated out of the area so we are sorry we could not offer our sympathy in person. George & Elaine Lancaster
