“ When Becky was little she had a blanki .She grew into a mature beautiful woman who traded that blanki for the Lord. Becky enjoyed singing . Her and Beth would sing doing family sorrows. With tears falling she was unable to finish the song . You could feel the Love and Peace in the room as everyone joined her to finish. That song was for her Grandmother my Mother . For that I always remember and thank her. I know the Angels are singing Becky home. LOVE YOU Aunt Pam.

“ I remember tracing to Iowa when. Becky graduated highschool and again when her sister Beth got married. When my mom died, Becky made sure to lift me up in ways I didn't even know I needed. We had many conversations about life, death and God's plan. She helped me see and understand things about my own faith just by living hers. As we grew up and had our own lives, we didn't see each other nearly as much as would have liked, but I always knew she was right there. ❤️❤️
