So many fond memories - Under-hand fast balls in the front yard, man that stings. Umpire Dickie kneeling Jim in the back at Little League games when he got mouthy. Whirlpools & inner tube rides to 10 ft in the air in the pool. We'll miss him a lot. Prayers to you all.

My wonderful Aunt Martha and Barbara, Anne, Janice and Mary and all their family are on my mind today. I have many great memories of Uncle Richard. He was an amazing umpire and referee. He umpired so many of my little league baseball games. We always liked him as an umpire because he was strict, you better not mouth off to him, but he was fair. I remember to this very day one at bat I had with him behind the plate. I did not swing at a pitch on a 3-2 count in a pretty big game. The pitch was right down the middle but was low. It seemed like forever (but it wasn't) until I heard Uncle Richard's voice say, "that's a little low, ball four". Man I was glad to hear that!! I can still hear him in my mind 50 years later. He refereed my football games in high school and was the best. He was also an amazing athlete. I was in the same bowling league with him for 2 seasons. He was a great bowler, I remember if it wasn't our turn we would walk down to his lane to watch him bowl. Incredible. If he threw a ball for you to catch you had better be ready because no glove had enough padding in it. I remember Uncle Richard and Aunt Martha had a pool in their back yard. A pool in your own backyard!! I never heard of such a thing! We would go out to their house to swim and there would be Uncle Richard in the pool, on a floating chair, listening to the radio on the side of the pool. Calm and relaxed. Minnie would look up and think, oh no, here they come. And man we would all come running, jump in, do whirlpools and jump around, splash half the water out of the pool, but Uncle Richard never complained. Snow skiing down the hill !! Man we had it all. What a wonderful time. So many memories, so many. I know he will be missed as a husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, brother and uncle but will always be remembered. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Today will be sad with many tears but know this with complete certainty, you will see him again in eternity.
