

Richard O. Good

April 6, 1955 - April 10, 2021

Richard O. Good, 66, of Indian Head, Maryland, passed away on April 10, 2021 at his home surrounded by his loving family.

Born on April 6, 1955 in Washington, DC, he was the son of the late Robin H. Good and Mary Frances Wilson. Richard was known to most as the man who could fix anything and worked as a mechanic for over 50 years. He enjoyed restoring antique cars, tractors, heavy equipment, and stationary gas engines with his son Todd. He was especially proud of his granddaughters Taylor and Tessah, and loved spending time watching Jeopardy with them both. Richard also had a soft spot for his two dogs, Bella and Sissy.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Courtney Good; three step-sisters; and two step-brothers.

Richard is survived by his wife of 45 years, Theresa "Terry" Good; son Todd "TJ" Good and his wife Holly; granddaughters, Taylor and Tessah Good; siblings, Wille Good of Waldorf, Raymond Good of La Plata, and Ralph Good of Marbury; three step-sisters; and one step-brother.

Due to the circumstances of COVID-19, a funeral service and interment will be private. We are sorry to be without your friendship and physical comfort, but it is our sincere hope that a Celebration of Richard's Life will be possible in the future.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of Charles County, 2505 Davis Road, Waldorf, Maryland 20603.

Online condolences may be made on Richard's Tribute Wall at www.raymondfuneralservice.com.

“ Jimmy and I send our condolences to you and your family Terry. (((Hugs))) We sent the crystal cross bouquet, but I forgot to put the signature on it. I hope it was beautiful. I remember when I first met you and Richard when you guys brought the home we were renting. We were so young. That was a long time ago. Jimmy said he knew Richard when they were young and were neighbors on Bowie RD! He will be missed. May the Lord give you and your family strength and comfort. Love you!
