“ *Grandpa,
I would have been there, no one told me. You were a good man and always there for me.
Growing up I have memories of our Christmases, the trips we made, and the many good times going out boating
Grandpa I Love You and will keep these memories and that love in my heart forever.
Grandpa You "Fly High" and I will be with you again one day.
Your Loving Grand-Daughter,
"Muffin" aka Elizabeth*

“ So many happy memories of growing up with my brother Rick. There were always exciting times when we were younger. In later years, it was great sitting around talking and laughing about stories from the good old days. I know you are in a better place now. Rest in peace my brother, until we meet again.

*Love you,
Jamie Fowler*

“ I remember sharing summers with Ricky in Verona N.J. at my parents home. I was one of five daughters and Ricky was considered the son my father never had. We spent time arguing about the civil War which he was insistent that "the south shall rise again!" I will miss our lively conversations Ricky. Be at peace cuz. Love Renee
