“ So sorry to hear of Dick Soule's passing. All the years I visited or spoke at the church I always enjoyed being in his cheerful company. He always had a smile on his face. You just could not help but love the guy. He and Faith were such a great team in serving the Lord at the FBC St. Charles and in the community. They were also active in the activities of the Potomac Baptist Association. He will be solely missed. He was a strong witness for his Lord by word and action. Freda and I will be in prayer for Faith and the family

So thankful have known and served with him.
