“ Dear Beverly, David, and Brenda,
I have so many warm memories of your mother from your White Plains years--the movies she took us to, the skating and bowling trips, her delicious cooking, hunting for running cedar in the woods with which to decorate your house at Christmas, and her sense of humor...How blessed you all were to have her as your mother! Her love for you and your father was always so obvious. My prayers are with you all, and with both of your parents, too. Hugs!
