“ Uncle Bobby was a great uncle! He took me to ball games, showed me how to play baseball and along with his 2 brothers bought me all the soda I could drink. He was also a great role model; he was a gentle but straight forward and good natured but firm in his values. I will cherish many memories. Cecelia's and my condolences go to all his family. He will be greatly missed.

“ My deepest sympathies to all of the Good family. I first met Mr. Good at Holy Ghost Church. He and his wife always stopped their car and said hello while I was out front playing with the kids. He always had something nice to say and his compliments were always appreciated. May God comfort you during this difficult time. Rest in peace Mr. Good. You always were smiling, and I am sure you are smiling in heaven.
