Loved visiting Bob in DC. I took this photo back a few years ago. We found this pulpit deep in the bowels of the Library of Congress and took advantage of the opportunity.

“ Bob was a great man, rep and friend and I am so shocked and saddened to learn this news. We had a lot of deep discussions and great laughs together. Whenever I see the cherry blossoms bloom, I will think of him. I am so sorry to all Bob's family for the rough last year they have had.
