He was a gentle soul. Never recovered from his time in Vietnam. He loved his wife and family deeply. An how happy he was to see his grandchildren grow into adults having his great grandchildren.always looking at Justine's picture wishing she was there to share. He was a good man faithful to his family. I am so glad to have been with him to hear his stories of a war that we should not have been in. Things he saw. He is happy now dancing with his wife he had been missing so much. I Won't forget you Uncle Bobby
