“ We are saddened to learn of the passing of our friend 'Big Bob'. Many were the good times we spent visiting and chatting. The annual Christmas Tree sale at the Temple Hills Church parking lot was a great time of fun and fellowship for us. We remember his hearty laugh and his love for Christ. His annual gift of produce from his garden was always a keenly anticipated event. Robert Miner's memories will always remain a bright spot in our lives.

“ Dear Martha, Mary Alice and I were saddened by the passing of your Robert. From your stories, we suspect he was a man that could do anything he set out to do. He leaves you with good memories going back five decades to carry forward in the years ahead. We will join you, your family, and friends at the service on Monday.

With sympathy.
