

Robert T. Puhalsky

May 28, 1949 - February 24, 2014

Robert (Bob) T. Puhalsky, son of Frank and Beatrice Osborn Puhalsky, was born in Youngstown, Ohio on May 28, 1949. Bob passed away on February 24, 2014.

He is survived by his wife, Teri; daughter, Dawn Puhalsky Keller; sons, Jonathan, David, and Tommy; brothers Ronald and Fredrick; son-in-law, Todd Keller; and granddaughters, Reilly and Jillian Keller.

Bob was a Sergeant in the U.S. Army from June 1967 to June 1973, serving in Vietnam as a wire chief. He was decorated with the National Defense Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Good Conduct Medal, a Bronze Star and a Purple Heart.

Bob spent many years working in Northeastern Ohio for Tokyo Shapiro, ultimately rising to Executive Vice President. After moving to Southern Maryland in 1989, he finished his career at Lowe's.

Bob enjoyed fishing, spending time on the beach with family, and the Cleveland Browns. He enjoyed working with his hands building tree houses, decks, patios, and other projects that could be enjoyed by his family. Bob left an impression on all who knew him. He was greatly loved and will be missed by family, friends, and coworkers.

Services will be at a later date at Arlington National Cemetery.
