“ To the Walls family: I am so sorry for your loss. It was a great pleasure working with and knowing Bobby, we bumped heads many times, but he was a giving, caring, sweet and kind man. I to will miss him. He was a good-hearted man, spoke of the Lord, and the healing cloth. May the Lord comfort each and every one of you as you are healing from this hurt and feeling an experience that only you feel and know. May the Lord Bless All of You Always. We will all rest in the Lord, and when I see you again, maybe I can play you another tune or two. Till we meet again my dear brother.
