“ I'm saddened to hear of Ron's passing. Condolences to the family during this difficult time. It was a pleasure to have met Ron at church and I enjoyed our talks on sports and life in general. He always had a way of making us all laugh. May he rest in heavenly peace.

“ I’m saddened to hear of Ron’s passing . We were buddies back in Suitland during elementary school at Mt Calvary and high school years. We were both members of the Mt Calvary CYO (Ron was a better dancer than I), during high school and rode the Mt Calvary high school bus, he toMackin I would get off at the St John’s stop. Ron also became friendly with my family on Silver Hill Rd, especially my niece, Roseann arroll Rohan and her dad Walt Mote. Ron, Walt and I would play nickel dime poker at their place. Walt was able to get Ron a Job at the US Senate electrical shop. I believe Ron was an electrician for his working life.
After high schoo, our lives drifted apart as I moved to Baltimore. I regret that i wasn’t able to catch up with Ron in our later years.
