“ Rosa, We were so very saddened to hear of Rosas passing. Your Mom has such a beautiful smile and although she spoke little English when we got to know you both, I could understand with that pretty smile just what she meant . We spent time together at Sagepoint worrying about our Moms together recently , and our prayers and sincere sympathy are with you all. It was truly a blessing and a pleasure to have gotten to know you both on this journey. God bless you and comfort you all. Brenda Canter, aka Shirley's daughter

“ Mrs. Inguanzo was a remarkable teacher and human being. She truly cared about her students and imparted a love for language and literature in those of us who were fortunate to be her students. She was a second mother to her children's friends and her memory will live on.

Doña Rosa, siempre te llevaré en mi corazón y atesoraré cada momento que compartí con usted, cada conversación al igual que su hermosa sonrisa. Fue una gran Dama. Y como se dedicó a cuidar de sus nietos y su adorada hija Rosy y su querido Edgar. Algun día nos volveremos a ver. Q.E.P.D ❤️ †🕊️
