“ My deepest and most heartfelt condolences on the loss of Roy. I am heartbroken over his passing, as I know you all are, but am hopeful we can all take comfort in knowing that Roy is now sitting by his Lord and Savior, and that all his pain and suffering is gone. The ones left to carry on without him will continue to miss and love Roy, but I believe he is watching over his family, friends, neighbors and all who knew him as the kind, generous, and wonderful man he was. My thoughts and prayers continue to be with the Hollingsworth family, and I am here if you need someone to talk to, someone to cry to, someone to provide hugs and, hopefully, someone to provide comfort. God Bless Roy and God Bless the Hollingsworth family. May Roy continue to rest in peace.

“ Linda and Family,
I'm so sorry to hear of Roy's passing. This has been a very difficult time for all of you during his long illness, and I pray that you find comfort knowing that Roy is now with God. When the time is right, I know that wonderful memories of all the years will replace your grief and sorrow and bring you peace. My best to all of you.
