“ I met Roy (Pops) over 30 years ago when I lived in Pomfret, Maryland. Although Pops had many hobbies, I believe he was a "salesman" by nature. He always had items for sale in front of the shop, and sold me a vacuum cleaner, TV, lawn mower, weed trimmer, and anything else he wanted to get rid of. We negotiated hard, but I was always satisfied with the final price. To be honest, I thought the shop was a "flea market", until I was telling him about my car problems. Pops said, let Ralph look at it, he's a mechanic. Well, you know the rest. Ralph became my mechanic for life.

*I will miss you Pops.

“ Roy, What a Friend! I enjoyed our times together, enjoying the stories about the trips you have taken twice a week or just sitting at the shop watching Judge Judy or Tiger Woods. I will miss you, until we meet in paradise.

*God Bless You
