“ We worked together at Mr. Laff's in Jensen Beach back in the day. We always had the best times. You were the most easy going and coolest person I ever worked with. Many of your coworkers will be heart broken to hear of your passing. Not many like you girl. I will remember you fondly. Jim Cash.

“ To Eric, Shaina, Colton and families. Please know how much Sabra was valued at BEP and how much she will be missed by those who were blessed to know her and were the beneficiaries of her kindness, humor and compassion. I hope you find comfort in your numerous memories as we are trying to do without her. She was such an inspiration in the way she lived her life and she never wasted time. She was certainly a fighter – for herself, for causes that mattered and made a difference in the lives of others, and for all of you whom she loved so much.

Sabra, I know the party continues but we here on Earth feel such a profound loss without you. I'll see you on the other side, sister.

“ I am going to miss you Sabra. You were such a hilarious, spunky, cheerful lady. I cannot count how many times you made me laugh until my side hurt. Hearing you say "Hey, what's up girl?" and the jokes that came after were often the highlight to a long work day. Seeing you come into work always brightened my day. ALWAYS. To say I am sad is an understatement. I know that I was definitely blessed to have worked at the same agency with you. I know that wherever you are you are smiling that pretty smile and still lighting up the space around you.

My sincerest and deepest condolences to the Pressman family.

“ Sabra, my dearest friend, you have touched my life like no other - your smile, laughter, friendship and kindness. You are a beautiful, rare gem and I will treasure you in my heart forever. Rest in peace my sweet sister. I love you and will miss you more than words could ever say.

Eric, please know Mark and I are thinking of you, Shaina and Colten at this difficult time. May you find comfort in knowing that she is at peace and through all the wonderful memories you have to share.

“ I offer the following words to help comfort Eric and the other members of Sabra's family through their time of grief:

You can shed tears that she's gone,

OR

You can smile because she lived!

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back,

OR

You can open your eyes and see all she's left!

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,

OR

You can be full of the love you shared!

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,

OR

You can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday!

You can remember only that she's gone,

OR

You can cherish her memory and let it live on!

You can cry and close your mind and be empty,

OR

You can do what she'd want - SMILE, OPEN YOUR EYES, LOVE and GO ON ... and ... of course ... HAVE SOME WINE!!!!

Sabras smile and the light that radiated from within always brightened my day, whenever we would greet in passing or have a casual conversation while waiting on the elevator it was always a joy. She had a kindness and warmth about her that was uniquely her own. My sincerest condolences to her husband, her children, and all of her loved ones. May God keep you all in his tender loving care.

I light of joy and happiness has gone from this world to the next heaven is better place now that she's there. My heart goes out Sabra's husband Eric and the rest of her family. I always enjoyed helping her with her many travel plans. A considered her a good friend and friend. I would smile ever time she'd see me and say "what's up good looking" or "hey there handsome".

She had a very natural way of making everyone around her feel special.

Goodbye for now Sabra. If the Lord is as good to me as he has been to you we will see each other again some day.

No more pain only peace
