“ Shackelford Family:

I was not well acquainted with Brother Shackelford but my husband and Brother Russell shared some good Christian times when they would set off to do a church project or Roy would swing by his home for one reason or another. Brother Russell was quiet and extremely polite the few times I met him and he loved and held his church and family above all. Romans 8:16-17 KJV. Love, in Christ, Roy & Patty Green

“ I Love you and miss you soo much pop. Im watchin all our gameshows and drinkin our coffee. Gonna go out and catch another 49 inch rockfish just for you. Your one hell of a great guy. I was soo lucky to have you in my life. Miss how ya would walk down the hallway in the morning and say. "Whatya say Jim. I can still hear your voice. And can still hear ur laugh everytime coo coo would always sneeze on me. And every morning aunt marion would call,us watching our game shows. Everything me and you went thru taking care of Dottie, w her dr appts, draining her stomach and lung tubes. We became nurses ourselves. Gonna miss cookin the crabs n cookouts too. You were a big part of my life and i cant wait to see you and Dottoe again in heaven. Thank you soo much Pop. My other Dad.
