

Samuel Willett

May 7, 1939 - January 15, 2013

Samuel Patrick "Pat" Willett of White Plains, Maryland, died on January 15, 2013 at St. Mary's Hospital in Leonardtown, MD. He was 73 years old.

Mr. Willett was a carpenter by trade, first working for his father, W. A. Willett and Sons, then James R. Willett, Builder, and later he was self-employed. Pat was a talented man who loved nature. He was an avid hunter and fisherman. He was known for the knives he crafted, the air boat and ultra-light plane he built. He was never without his camera. A man of strong beliefs, he lived his life to the fullest, HIS WAY.
