“ Bill and Barbara Breighner would like to send our sincere sympathy along with prayers and love to Fred, Christina, and the entire Sacket family on the loss of Sara. She was such a warm and welcoming person and always willing to help out in any way she could. We were both on the same street in a new neighborhood about two houses apart, I think, so there was a lot to share. I pray that the lovely memories you have of her will help you through this difficult time. I would like to share this with you....."And so a good woman leaves us. But she leaves us better for having known her." I think that is true of Sara.
