“ I bought a blue bracelet from Jody when she was first selling them. I put it on my wrist and it didn't come off until I learned of his death. Jody portrayed Scott as a wonderful husband and considered her three kids as his own. May he rest in peace!

“ Scott was a very special, self-less man who dedicated so much of his time to others and to helping make boys into men. I'm sending my thanks to you, Scott - up in Heaven for all you did for the boys in Waldorf Little League. You and Don Rosche are probably catching up now on the past 3.5 years!! As Christians, let us not forget this is not a farewell, but a see you later. For Scottie and the rest of Scott's family, you are and will remain in our prayers for His comfort, strength and peace in the days to come.

“ I worked at the same office as Scott. He was nice, he was helpful in the usual way at the office, but when it came time to bring Scott in for treatment during lunch you really saw the man he was. He'd tell me plainly what was going on, and rather than feel sadness he was always upbeat and grateful. He got to know all the people who had their treatments around the same time he did and went out of his way to check on them. We all enjoyed our turn at Scott's Taxi service because spending time with him was fun. A very good man who it was obvious was loved by his wife and family very much. Thanks for letting me get to know you Scott.
