“ It’s been a year since Shane passed. Nothing in life is the same anymore. I decided that I needed to say this, and yes; I gave it a lot of thought first. His father insisted on being added to the obituary however, Shane didn’t know his father and never met his twin siblings. Shane was loved and raised by his sister Josie, brother Kyle and myself with more help from the Maryland school for the blind than I could possibly repay them for.

Shane was a guy who was full of humor and kept us laughing in the classroom. He will be missed and a void in our lives and when I look at the black dvd case I'll remember how much he touched us at MSB and will be missed. ❤️❤️
