

Sheila Taylor

April 16, 1961 - June 25, 2009

Sheila Ann Taylor, 48, of White Plains, MD; daughter of the late Shea and Bessie Taylor, peacefully went home to be with her Savior on June 25, 2009. Sheila was born on April 16, 1961, and received her education in the DC Public School system.

Sheila accepted Christ at a young age and was baptized at St. Stephens Baptist Church. In later years she joined Christian Praise Church. Sheila was employed by WUSA Channel 9 until she was unable to work due to health reasons.

Sheila, affectionately known as She-She, loved high fashion, playing cards, music and singing. But, most of all, She-She loved her family.

Sheila leaves to cherish her memory son, Marcus Taylor; sisters, Leola and her husband Thomas Gilliam; Liz Taylor; brothers, James Taylor; Shea and his wife Angela Taylor; aunt, Mary Alice Williams, a devoted friend, Betty Curtis and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
