“ I love & miss you Shelby. You & Ricky are together now. You two were my best friends back in the day we were all around 12 years old. Last time I spoke with you, you were a little down, I did make you laugh at least that day. Crazy how we've been friends since 2004 & I never met you. You were dating ricking back then and we all used to 3-Way on the phone. I miss you Shelby. We used to long distance date for a bit and comforted each other during our times of sadness. I feel bad it never worked out between us. Someday I will see you. I will always cherish you for being there for me and for being my friend. Not a day goes by that I don't think about you and wish I could of flew up there to save you. </3

“ It took me all this time to be able to share my memory (memories) Shelby was a very talented, gifted person. Her qualities were unique as was she. She was an Empath; A person who felt the emotions of the ppl around her and had a insight into the very souls of her family and friends. She was a sponge in nature, she absorbed the feelings of those she held dear. That's why she had such a hard time living life on life's terms. She'd be mentally and emotionally exhausted. She wanted nothing more than to stay clean and was working hard to become a nurse. She had huge dreams and a lot of ambition. However, her gift was also her doom. I remember her confiding in me the sense of a huge void in her heart and life. And how she'd wear different masks, metaphorically speaking, she wore the happy mask with a smile on her beautiful face, when in reality she was crying inside. She wore her collegiate mask appearing to know her studies when in reality she was juggling classes, studying time, work and meetings just to get through the day. What a talent for the arts. Not just graphic artist but a theatrical artist. God came for his Angel, I pray for her soul. May she rest in eternal peace alongside our Heavenly Father. She believed in spirits and living again. And Reincarnation!! I know we'll see each other again, in the afterlife. Until then, Fly High darling!! Guide over your family and friends. May they get understanding from your MUCH too early departure. We love you 🥺. I love you ❤️. R. I. Paradise! Shine bright like a diamond!!

“ *Shelby,
I will treasure the memories of us always. I missed the days when we played in the dirt, played with Barbies, walked the neighborhood, and we used our imagination to have fun and laugh. I will hold onto these forever in my head. You were truly one of a kind. I could go on and on about how amazing you were but words will never do it justice I love you with all my heart and will you be missed more than you could ever know.*

*Love,
Nicole Marquis (sissy)*
