“ Sherry was such a delight to anyone who knew her or even came in contact with her! Our days of leading the youth at First Baptist of La Plata created many fond memories and experiences. Tim and all your family: May God sustain you through this time. Heaven has received another angel and although she isn't physically with you and us now, she will always be in our hearts for her love of Christ, love for people and her unselfish and giving ways. My heart is heavy for the loss of this amazing woman and for you, Tim and family, as you seek comfort and strength from our Lord Jesus Christ. There are no words. Just know you are loved and prayed for.

“ I should be with you today to celebrate your journey Home...Sadly Hurricane Dorian had other ideas. I always thought of you as my portal to the past, to my childhood, to my Grandparents, to my family and mostly to my Dad. The majority of my early childhood memories are of you. I could always count on you to tell me things I didn't know or couldn't remember and I always came away feeling better for it...you were infectious to be around. I love you and I thank you for that. You were a counselor, a comforter and you tried your best to save me, as I know you probably did for countless others. You were truly a child of Christ and I know you are dancing today, dancing in the sky.....I'll see you on the other side..💔 ..

“ So sorry for your loss, Tim and boys. We just talked to you and Sherry in July at Grace Church Waldorf's potluck lunch. Becky and Jason especially have fond memories of fun times together with you and the youth group (although they were no longer youth at the time).

“ When Sherry walked into a room, she lit the place up with her twinkling eyes and great smile. My heart hurts knowing that your family has to go through a loss no one was prepared for. But we take comfort in knowing that Sherry dances in Heaven with my father in law, Woody Barbour. She is a good, good person full with the love of Christ and anyone that ever met Sherry always left knowing that she loved God and she loved her family more than mere words can say. Our family will lift each of you to Jesus to help you in the days to come. We love you.

“ To be around Sherry was to understand the love of God that moved through her every action. Her smile was a great comfort when her brother, my dad, Woody Barbour, went to heaven. She and her entire family made the nearly 10 hour trip and her patience and love helped our family through those hard days. May God's great love comfort your family and may He give you His strength to get through these hard days. To know Sherry was to know love. Staci McGowan

“ Sherry brought tons of smiles to all who met her. The kindness of her heart is so apparent when she smiles. The sudden loss of someone so loved is difficult for us that are temporary left behind. Her love of her family has always been present in all that she did or said. I'm asking our gracious Lord to watch over each of you and wrap His loving arms around you during these days. May He bring you comfort knowing that Sherry is happy and well taken care of in Christ's loving arms. Sherry would want each of you to lean into Him for solace now knowing she rests peacefully and lovingly a'waiting the day she welcomes her family members home. I love you. Gina
