“ To the family of Shirley our deepest condolences, We grew up together, her brother and sister, my brothers and I, and all the neighborhood kid's in the streets at Sixth & Garfield, in South Arlington, we would play, throw frisbee, and ride bicycle all over the place , to town the bike trails and to Great Falls , back then we had nothing in the world to worry about, except getting home on time and doing well in school back then thing we're easy. Shirley rest in peace, and walk with God. Bless You and your family. Domenico Gargani

“ To Shirley's family and her beloved husband Eric,

Bob and I are deeply saddened to read of Shirley's passing. Shirley had been our trusted "baby sitter" back when I used to travel for my job. We do not have human children-so our pets are pampered, spoiled and cherished & we only trusted Shirley to care for them. Shirley kept a daily journal of their activities and would email us updates of their antics while we were away.

Over the years, on occasion, we would run into Shirley and she always asked about our pets- calling them by name. She even sent us a sympathy card when one of them passed over to the Rainbow Bridge.

Shirley made a difference in our lives and we will be forever touched by her kindness.

*We are so sorry and extend our deepest sympathy.
