“ My favorite memory would be living in the green house and grandma would ask my sister Susan and I to go up to th Ben Franklin store to get some candy. She would go for money out of her bank (bra) and give us just enough. But when we came back we would have a whole bunch of candy and she would ask if we stole it. And of course we didn't...there is the one pole down the street that we would always find money at the base of the pole. And it always seemed when she had that sweet tooth and send us there we came back with more bc of the money we found.

“ Grandma, I don't even know where to begin. There are entirely too many memories. One thing that I know that has always stayed with me and always will is that you thought chicken noodle soup and a grill cheese cured everything. To this day any time that I am sick that is my go to. I don't want anything but that. I love you so much! You are going to be missed by many. I will miss having you here and hearing all of your stories and getting your advice but I will miss most of all being able to hug you. I know that you will always be with me though. I am glad though that you are getting much needed rest. You always put everyone else first. I love you Grandma!
