

Stevan Edward Charnock Jr.

September 22, 1976 - January 5, 2015

Stevan Edward Charnock Jr., a life-long resident of Southern Maryland died unexpectedly on January 5, 2015 at the age of 38.

He is survived by his parents, Stevan Charnock Sr. and Carol Charnock; his younger brothers, Tommy and Marc; his nephews, Tommy and Caleb; and a myriad of friends and loved ones.

Stevie was born on September 22, 1976 in Washington, DC as the first of 3 children. There was nothing Stevie liked more than taking care of everyone. He lived life with the attitude that “Everything was better with a friend” and made an effort to make everyone feel welcomed and included. He was always ready with a hug or a helping hand or even just a smile. He has been described as a giant teddy bear and although he had great strength, he was much more comfortable getting on the ground and coloring with whatever 2 year old happened to be playing in the room. He was never able to say no, and took on every task with his trademark smile and jovial nature. It didn’t matter if it was as small as making a grocery run for a sick friend or as large as moving a piano, he was only a phone call away. Whether you knew him as Pokey-bubba, Simba, “No Brakes”, Stevie, or his latest incarnation as Uncle Bucko, he left an indelible mark on you and your life.

Stevie served many roles in life from son, to big brother, to uncle, to protector, to child's jungle gym and cherished them all. His legacy will be one of caring, loyalty, and selflessness to the highest degree. He lives on in our hearts and minds and we know he is watching over us all. Although he is no longer here in person, should he be needed he is only a prayer away. Heaven gained the perfect guardian angel with Stevie.

There will be a viewing at Raymond's Funeral Home in La Plata on Sunday January 11, 2015 from 3-6pm with a prayer service to be held at 5pm.

The Funeral will occur on Monday January 12,2015 at 11am at Our Lady Help of Christians Catholic Church in Waldorf, with a time for remembrance beginning at 10:30am should you want to share your memories of Stevie or just to hear others retell their memories.

Interment will be at Trinity Memorial Gardens following the funeral.

We ask that in lieu of flowers, donations be made in Stevie's name to the Port Tobacco Players Scholarship Fund, P. O. Box 2030 La Plata, Maryland 20646.

“ Stevie was one of the most genuinely kind and caring individuals I have ever met with a heart so big that it couldn't be measured. This world lost someone who touched everyone he met and Heaven gained one heck of an angel. When it is our time to join him, I am sure he will be waiting with a giant smile!

“"In a gentle way you can shake the world" - to me, this quote fits Steve perfectly. Once you met him, you could never forget him, he's one of those rare people that's able to get along with everyone. The other thing about Steve, you can't know him without knowing how much he loved his family. Thoughts and prayers for the Charnock family and everyone that loved him.

“ Although we didn't know Stevie personally, we do know his father Steve, whom we have bowled with on the Saturday Night Christian Mix for many years. I remember Stevie coming into the bowling alley many times to watch his dad. And we also remember seeing him often on Sundays at Panera. Steve our prayers go out to you and your family at this very difficult time. May the Lord Jesus comfort you as only he is able.

“ I remember the first day we met. You greet me with a smile and a joke. From that moment on we have been friends. It has been shared about your strength and the kindness you shared with others. I have a funny way of describing you and I hope this does not offend anyone but here it goes. The story is Young Ferdinand. Ferdinand does not enjoy butting heads with other young bulls, preferring instead to lie under a tree smelling the flowers. His mother worries that he might be lonely and tries to persuade him to play with the other calves, but when she sees that Ferdinand is content as he is, she leaves him alone.

When the calves grow up, Ferdinand turns out to be the largest and strongest of the young bulls. All the other bulls dream of being chosen to compete in the bull fight in Madrid, but Ferdinand still prefers smelling the flowers to fighting. Five men come to the pasture to choose a bull for the fights. Ferdinand is again on his own, sniffing flowers, when he accidentally sits on a bee. He runs wildly across the field, snorting and stamping. Mistaking Ferdinand for a mad bull, the men rename him Ferdinand the Fierce and take him away to Madrid.

All the beautiful ladies of Madrid turn out to see the handsome matador fight Ferdinand the Fierce. However, when Ferdinand is led into the ring, he is delighted by the flowers in the ladies' hair and lies down in the middle of the ring to enjoy them. Everyone is upset and disappointed. Ferdinand is sent back to his pasture, where to this day, he is still smelling flowers. This is my image of you, always stopping to smell the roses. Providing love, helpfulness, laughter, strength and a life of service to others never expecting to be paid back, just always there to help. Rest now my Ferdinand in the field of flowers.

“ Stevie was an inspiration to many to include my family. He always had a positive attitude towards life and never turned down someone in need with no desire for return favors or compensation. From the time Stevie came into our lives, he brought joy and fun to every gathering. A party just wasn't the same without him and neither will life but his legacy and synergy will be paid forward in his honor.

My most vivid memory is on the wedding of Kristy to Tommy, when Stevie told Tom to “Be sure to take care of Kristy because you know what Dad does to rusted and stubborn Lug Nuts”. He will also be missed on the softball field in the Church league. His batter introductions will always be missed... “Right Fooooooooot”.

To me and my family Stevie was a true Hero in life and know he will be a great Angel in Gods service. We will always ask why you had to go but I truly believe God needed a kindred spirit such as yourself to serve him directly for his will. Until we meet again Stevie, you will be greatly missed but will always remain in our hearts and memories.

“ My wife and I have both played many a softball game with Stevie over the past 10 years or more. With Stevie behind the plate and myself as one of the team pitchers, he and I played "catch" many evenings! It won't be same without him there. The few games he missed, even the opposing teams would ask "Where's Stevie?" No one can deny the big presence he brought to the ball-field. He was always, and I do mean ALWAYS positive... Every time I saw him I'd ask "How's it going, Stevie?" His response was ALWAYS the same... "Oh, I can't complain!"

To the Charnock Family: We love you and you're in our thoughts and prayers.
